Second Announcement

January 6, 2018.

This will be the ninth one in the series of conferences entitled “International Conference in Abstract Harmonic Analysis”. National Sun Yat–sen University held the fifth one in 2009. The first three conferences were held at Koc University in Istanbul, Turkey, in 2002, 2004 and 2006; the fourth one was at the Chinese University of Hong Kong in 2007; the sixth at the Chern Institute, Nankai University, Tianjin, China in 2011; the seventh one was held in Granada, Spain in 2013, and the eighth one was held in Halifax, 2015.

This conference will especially pay attention to the recent rapid development of the interrelationship between Abstract Harmonic Analysis, Classical Harmonic Analysis and Applied Analysis.
